IN THE ART BAR

Clare Tartarsky

I cannot remember a time when I did not make art. I grew up in a family where art was part of everyday life. My mother sewed clothing and dolls, my father made dioramas, my sister took fabulous photos, and my brother made stop action films. Art is still part of my daily life. The paintings in this show combine my love of pattern with Doodles collected from a variety of sketchbooks. The sculptures are mostly extensions of the creatures that appear in my paintings.
