Three generations of the Boulding family will set the stage ablaze with the Tara Academy Irish Dancers, lively fiddling of Jocelyn Pettit, soulful songs with brilliant Dublin guitarist Colm MacCarthaigh and dynamic percussionist Matt Jerrell. Philip and Pam's Celtic harp and hammered dulcimer will sing mysteries from their recent sojourn in Ireland, augmented by cello, violin, whistles, accordion and concertina.

IN THE ART BAR: PAUL BLUM

I have been painting in oil now for 9 years, and my work has evolved from paintings of Mt. Baker and the Cascades and mask-like faces to paintings influenced by a weekend with my wife and friends in a cabin near Marblemont along the Diobsud Creek, in the rainforest. The sunlight shattered by the thick canopy of the Fir and Cedar, the night of wonderful music we all made, and the moonlight all had a lasting effect on me.

After winning a Grammy for his soulful ballad "Walking in Memphis," Marc Cohn solidified his place as one of this generation's most compelling singer/songwriters. Cohn presents a 25th anniversary concert featuring the Blind Boys of Alabama, who are recognized around the world as both living legends and innovators.

COMING ATTRACTIONS

MONTREAL GUITAR TRIO

Thurs Feb 8 | 7:30pm | $20 - $35 + applicable fees.
$2 off for Lincoln Theatre Members!

The Montreal Guitar Trio was so impressive when they performed with the California Guitar Trio last year we're bringing them back for their own show. Described by the CBC as the "hottest" guitar ensemble in Canada, MG3 has quickly established itself as a force to be reckoned with, as well as an interactive force in various musical forms.

THE COMIC STRIPPERS

Sat Feb 17 | 7:30pm | $32 reserved; $27 for groups of 6 or more + fees | $2 Lincoln member discount

A fictitious male stripper troupe (played by a cast of some of Canada's best improvisational comedians) performs a sexilarious improv comedy show. These guys try to be sexy... it just comes out funny. Constantly grooving and gyrating in between scenes they banter with the crowd and perform their hilarious twist on improv sketches. Ages 21 and over

PAULA POUNDSTONE

Sat Apr 28 | 8:00pm | $35 - $65 | $2 discount for Lincoln Theatre Members.

34 years ago Paula Poundstone climbed on a Greyhound bus and traveled across the country -- stopping in at open mic nights at comedy clubs as she went. A high school drop-out, she went on to become one of the great humorists of our time. Tickets go on sale to Lincoln Theatre Members on Nov 3; to the general public Nov 10.
